Package Title: - Kateel - Dharmasthala - Kukke Vistadome Package (2Nights/3Days)

Vistadome is a state-of-the-art coach designed by railways to provide guests with travel comfort and enhanced viewing of the natural surroundings. A journey with a seat in the Vistadome coach traversing through Western Ghats offers several frames of greenery and natural beauty. The scenic Sakleshpur - Subrahmanya Ghat section is the highlight of the journey, offering breathtaking glimpses of mountains. The journey on the vistadome coach will allow everyone to stay up close with nature and explore natural wonders in their full glory.

Someshwara Beach is a rocky beach on the outskirts of Mangaluru city in coastal Karnataka. River Netravati confluences with Arabian Sea near the Beach. The Beach gets its name from Someshwara temple nearby. Sunset view from the beach is very popular.

Kateel Durga Parameshwari Temple, located on an island in Nandini river. The temple dedicated to Goddess Durga Parameshwari is in the form of an Udbhava Moorthi (naturally formed). The pillars of the temple also have beautiful sculptures. It is considered one of the holiest Hindu temple towns in India.

Dharmasthala is Located amid the sylvan surroundings on the Western Ghats. This well-known pilgrimage center on the banks of Netravati river, in Belthangady taluk of Dakshin Kannada district, is an interesting amalgam of faiths. It is arguably the most visited religious place in Karnataka. Dharmasthala is a remarkable example of communal, religious and cultural harmony.

Kukke- Nestled between hills, this pilgrim center is famous for the 5000 years old Kukke Subramanya Temple on the banks of Kumaradhara river. The epics narrate how the divine serpent Vasuki and other snakes took refuge under Lord Subrahmanya, in the caves. Here Lord Subrahmanya is worshipped as a snake and pooja is offered to Him, who is merged with serpent king Vasuki. Hence, believed to be the ultimate solace for salvation from any sort of Naga Doshas.
